Breaking Barriers

Who should attend:
The 2019 YWLS will bring together school female students from grades 8-12 to learn about leadership skills, careers opportunities after high school, best practices from experienced professionals, and to learn to become the leaders of the future. A light breakfast and lunch will be provided. The event is FREE to attend.

Mentors:
Small group settings will provide attendees the opportunity to engage with a table mentor to help them guide the conversation. Mentors are professionals with a minimum of 3-10 years of experience and executives from various fields. This year mentors include professionals from Blinds.com, HHCC, HCC, Capital One, Chase, Aldine ISD, Travels Insurance, New York Life, WHA, entrepreneurs, and many more.

Panels:
Students will hear from Women Breaking Barriers and Women Helping Women during two panel discussions. Students will also have the opportunity to select two breakout sessions to either get crazy creative with Idea Labs in an interactive session, learn about careers in STEM, Finance, Banking, Law, Government, and career guidance, or develop their skills on personal branding and becoming their best self. Panels will be represented by professionals from HCC, BRG, Phillips 66, MaxPlus Texas, Capgemini, Mutual of Omaha Bank, New York Life, HoustonF1st, Aldine ISD, Katy ISD, One Foot Over, and many more.
